

Agency Hopping

NCR Operations Group hops from agency to agency in Metro Manila to share the good news about GSIS during their flag-raising ceremony.

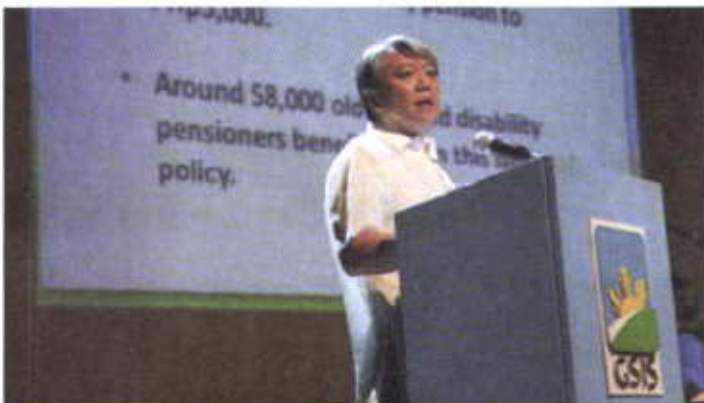

March 9 – Manila City Mayor Joseph E. Estrada welcomes NCR Operations Group employees headed by NCR I OIC Manager Eric G. Bundac (center).

March 3 – Officer I Jenison M. Aldaba of NCR Department II (extreme left) engages employees of the Cultural Center of the Philippines after their flag-raising ceremony.

Stakeholders' Dialogues

The first quarter of 2015 saw GSIS making the rounds of four key cities in the country – Dumaguete, General Santos, Roxas, and Pasig – to conduct Stakeholders' Dialogues. Face-to-face meetings such as these provide GSIS a chance to inform them about GSIS's reforms and listen to their concerns.

March 6 – PGM Vergara presents the reforms for stakeholders to over 1,000 members in Pasig, Mandabuyong, Taguig, Pateros and Rizal at the Tanghalang Pasigueno in Pasig City, considered the largest dialogue in terms of number of attendees.

February 20 – PGM Vergara in a light moment with GSIS stakeholders at the Bethel Guest House in Dumaguete City. Almost 300 members and pensioners from Negros Oriental and Siquijor were in attendance. He is flanked by VisMin Operations Group SVP Dionisio C. Ebdane Jr. and Dumaguete Branch Office Manager Mercedes VPE. Enriquez.

February 23 – GSIS members in General Santos City with PGM Vergara during the First Conference of Mindanao State Universities and Colleges' Public Sector Unions/Associations.

Pensioners' Day

GSIS sets aside a day for pensioners as a way of giving back for the years of service they have dedicated in government.

February 28 – Staff Officer I Rowena Sanata Q. Casurangan of Taguig Branch Office serenades special guest Mr. Ernesto B. Baac Sr. during a pensioners' day in Kalinga.

March 2 – PGM Vergara discusses GSIS reforms to 350 GSIS stakeholders in Roxas City at the Justice Josue N. Bellosillo's Hall, Kapisi Mansions.
